E-Punch Decision

At its March board meeting, COC's Board of Directors approved the purchase of the Sportident electronic punching system. After a demonstration of the system at the March 8 Seward Park event, it was clear that the chief advantages of the system are accuracy and speed of results. Depending on when the equipment arrives, we plan to use it at some of our spring events, as well as at the PNWOF event in Cle Elum, the Six Degrees of Navigation adventure race, and at all of next season's WIOL events. Jennifer Knowles, in addition to her duties as club president, has agreed to be the E-punch Coordinator for at least the next 2 years. Thanks, Jennifer, for taking on this critical role.

Spring Skills Clinic a Success

Sixteen people braved blustery spring weather for a day of orienteering workshops on March 22 at Lynndale Park. The classroom at Lynndale was smaller than expected, so this turned out to be a very full house! The participants ranged from absolute beginners to people with quite a bit of experience. Doug Sprugel started the day with a discussion of basic and intermediate level skills that included some lively discussion about route choices. This was followed by practice with compass skills on a precision pacing and bearing course set up by Eric Bone. Bill Cusworth gave a clear overview of the effort and jobs that go into making each orienteering event succeed or fail. After lunch, Eric talked about strategies for relocating when you lose contact with the map or can't find that darn control, then sent everyone out in pairs on complementary maps for a relocation exercise. The day ended with a session on course design presented by Katie Sprugel, focusing on local meets. Everyone got a chance to design some hypothetical legs at Magnuson Park and get them critiqued. A good time appeared to be had by all (and the forecast rain didn't happen)!

We had to turn a few people away because the clinic was full, so we will consider doing another one in the fall if there is sufficient interest.

Thanks to Katie for organizing the workshop and Eric, Doug, Katie and Bill for presenting. Jim Siscel made arrangements for the room at Lynndale. Thanks also to Bruce McAlister for bringing some great home baked treats.
